COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Bridging Divides, Healing Communities Grant Program

Name of applicant: _____

Email address of applicant: _____

Name of community group: _____

Is this a nonprofit organization, municipality/local government or public school (Check one)?

- Nonprofit organization
- Municipality / local government
- Public school

Amount requested (up to $2,500): _____

Please give a brief (one paragraph) description of the community group.

What is the activity or program you are planning? How is it aimed at bringing people together to achieve one or more of the objectives listed below?

- Create new and/or strengthen existing relationships among people who come from different backgrounds, experiences or beliefs (e.g., neighborhood discussions, forums)
- Forge connections around a shared experience through which participants can explore different points of view (e.g., arts and the creative process)
- Come together to pursue a common goal regardless of differences that may exist among the group (e.g., service project)

Describe who will participate and how they will be identified and engaged.

What is the total project cost? If approved for a Bridging Divides, Healing Communities grant, how will this funding be used?

If funded, you will be asked to provide a brief narrative on the activity, observations on what occurred and reflections on what was learned through the planning and implementation. Photos and/or video clips from the activity or event will be welcome.
