The Margery and William Barrett Public Service Award was established in 2000 to commemorate the extraordinary generosity of Margery Barrett who gave over $3 million during and after her lifetime to benefit the communities of Adams, Cheshire and Savoy.

The Barrett award is given annually to an individual who has given above and beyond the call of duty to the communities of Adams, Cheshire or Savoy through their paid or volunteer work. The announcement is made annually on June 30th to coincide with Mr. and Mrs. Barrett's wedding anniversary.

About Margery Barrett

Margery Barrett, who initiated The Fund for Adams, Cheshire and Savoy, was born on July 11, 1910 and moved to Adams as a child. She graduated from the former Adams High School in 1927 and from the former North Adams Normal School (now the Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts) in 1929.

Mrs. Barrett was an integral part of the community she loved. She served as a teacher in both the Conway School System and former Howland Avenue School and later as a substitute teacher in Adams. She was a member of the St. Mark's Episcopal Church and of its guild, where she was president for six years, a member of its Altar Guild and a former Sunday school teacher. She was also a member of the Adams' Girls Club.

On June 30, 1934 she married William Barrett, with whom she shared her life in Adams until he died on February 4, 1969. She and William were both accomplished photographers. She was a member of the Photographic Society of America, the Royal Photographic Society of Great Britain, past president of the Northern Berkshire Camera Club, and past vice president of the New England Camera Club.

Margery Barrett died on April 3, 2000 at the age of 89.
